

Title IX: Sexual Conduct Information and Reporting

In case of an emergency, please call 911 for immediate assistance.

The Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 is legislation that helps protect individuals from Sexual Harassment, Assault, Violence, and Discrimination:

No person in the United States shall, on the basis of sex, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any education program or activity receiving federal financial assistance.

SelecTechnical Institute strives to maintain an educational environment compliant with all applicable anti-discrimination laws, including all laws outlawing discrimination arising from: sexual harassment, sexual violence, race, color, sex, age, sexual orientation, religion, ethnic or national origin, disability, veteran status, or any other protected status. Unlawful academic discrimination by officers, managers, faculty, supervisors, employees, students, advisors, vendors, clients, or contractors will not be tolerated.

Retaliating against anyone who complains about discrimination as defined in this policy is also unlawful. Moreover, retaliating against anyone for cooperating in an investigation initiated to discover any of the prohibited conduct identified in the prior paragraph, whether internal or external, is also unlawful and contrary to STI's policies.

If you feel you are a victim of Sexual Harassment, Assault, Violence, and Discrimination, please contact

Marshall Caplan, (713) 672-4115, Marshall.Caplan@SelecTechnical.Institute

Philip Boyko, (713) 672-4115, Philip.Boyko@SelecTransportation.com or Houston Police Department: 713-884-3131 (non-emergency).

We are committed to investigating sexual conduct reports.